

UNIVERSITY OF CALIFORNIA, BERKELEY

Statement of our Commitment to the Environment

University of California, Berkeley students, faculty, and staff are committed to taking a leadership role as responsible stewards of the physical environment and to using educational and research activities to promote environmental awareness, global thinking, and local action. This commitment includes:

- Protecting and enhancing the campus environment;
- Purchasing environmentally preferable products, minimizing the use of toxic substances, and handling wastes responsibly;
- Conserving natural resources through their sustainable use in building projects, transportation, and campus operations;
- Significantly reducing campus greenhouse gas emissions;
- Conducting innovative research on sustainable technology and practices;
- Increasing awareness of these values through instruction and example; and
- Collaborating with a diverse and engaged campus community on these issues to help fulfill the University's mission.

We are making this commitment because:

- UC Berkeley is a world leader in education and research, and must also be a leader in environmental stewardship;
- Realizing these values will create a healthier educational and work environment;
- Resource conservation helps save valuable resources for future generations and lowers operating expenses; and
- Our commitment serves as the foundation of a system to assess, prioritize, and implement campus environmental programs and sustainability initiatives.

By embracing these values and integrating them into all University activities, we can better fulfill the University's mission of teaching, research, and public service.
